

STUDENT CONSENT FOR FACULTY/STAFF RECOMMENDATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, seeks to guarantee both a student's right of access to records and the confidentiality of student information. Institutions may not disclose information contained in education records without the student's written consent except under certain conditions. View the University of the South's complete policy online at: FERPA Policy.

Statements or information from an individual's personal observations and/or knowledge of the student do not require a written release.
